

3. Father George/Jason/Alice

Jason and Alice walk into a room where Father George is praying on his knees.

Father George: In the name of the father, the son, and the holy spirit, Amen.

Jason: Good evening, Father. How are you?

Father George: I am well. Why do you come here?

Jason: My daughter is delusional! She believes that she is a man. Is there anything that you can do to...fix her?

Alice: No! I don't need to be fixed!

Father George: I could try a prayer and some holy water.

Jason: Thank you, Father.

Father George: Here, my child, have a seat right here.

Father George points to a chair, in which Alice sits. Father George walks away and grabs a vial of holy water.

Alice: I'm gonna do this just to prove you wrong.

Father George: Lord, please release this girl of her mental instability and lead her down your path. Amen.

Father George puts a drop of holy water on Alice's forehead.

Father George: Ok, that should help. Take her home and treat her well.

Jason: Thank you, Father, I will do so.

Alice: I don't feel any different.

Jason: Let's go.

Jason and Alice exit.

4. Charles/Austin

Austin: I don't know...it all seems...crazy.

Charles: What do you think?

Austin: I don't know...mixed feelings, I guess.

Charles: I mean...we all have a story.

Austin: What's your story?

Charles: The first guy I had a crush on?

Austin: Yeah.

Charles: I dunno. I think it was some guy name Leon in 6th Grade...

Austin: 6th Grade?

Charles: Yeah.

Austin: I've never had a crush on anyone.

Charles: You're missing out.

Austin: I guess.

Charles: Austin.

Charles pushes Austin onto the wall/chair

Charles gives Austin a quick and gentle kiss on the lips

Austin is stumped

Austin (pushes Charles away): What are you...

Charles: I really like you. Really.

Austin: That felt nice.

Charles stares at Austin

Austin: The kiss.

Austin pushes a finger onto Charles's mouth.

Austin: Please don't tell anyone.

Austin swoops for a quick kiss on Charles's lips and escapes. Charles follows.
